Rules and regulations

Bringing alcoholic beverages to the playing area is prohibited.
Smoking is allowed only at designated areas.

Obligatory dresscode for players is trousers (shorts and jeans are not allowed), dart sport related shirts and closed toe shoes. Center stage matches require players to wear black trousers (shorts and jeans are not allowed) and black closed toe shoes.

Order of play is determined by bull throw. The first person to throw to bull is determined by the draw. Players can use a maximum of 9 practice darts before starting the match.

Players not present at the appointed board within 5 minutes of 2nd call, or players who missed registration will be eliminated, their opponents will advance without play.

The loser of the match is required to stay at the board and be the marker for the next match or to find someone else to mark it. Not fulfilling this requirement will result in a deduction in points.

Players not present at the closing ceremony cannot receive their prizes.
